Building a Smart Business with Bob Sutton

What would happen if you knew the specific activities to perform on a daily, weekly and monthly basis to have a successful real estate business?

This course will cover topics from the three keys of Ninja Selling:

Mindset - Learn how to create a personal mastery by reigniting your passion, setting goals and programming your non-conscious mind for success.

Skillset - Focus on the skills that really impact productivity and profitability. Learn a business strategy that generates leads by staying top of mind with your clients. Attract customers instead of chasing them.

Actions - Develop an action plan with daily, weekly and monthly activities designed to guide you in creating the business and life you have always wanted.
